

Robert Madeux

September 19, 1945 - March 26, 2011

Robert Louis Madeux passed away peacefully in his home surrounded by his family on March 26, 2011. Robert was born on September 19, 1945, in Waterbury, CT and raised in Watertown, CT by his parents, Norma (Hawkins) Madeux and the late Robert Stephen Madeux. He was married for more than thirty-two years to his loving partner, Judith Hattori Madeux. Robert is also survived by his brother, Laurent Madeux (Judith K Madeux); and his five own remarkable children, Laurie Madeux McGuire, Robert Alan Madeux, Robert Benjamin Madeux, Steven Charles Madeux, and William Thomas Madeux; and four grandchildren, Danielle, Robert Anthony, Stephanie and Todd Madeux. Robert studied electrical engineering at the University of Connecticut, chose Telecommunications as his occupation for most of his career, and held leadership positions with SNET, SBC, Bell Laboratories, AT&T and was most recently employed at Value Options. A rugged individualist, Robert's interests and knowledge were varied and all encompassing. He was as comfortable sharing information about network architectures as he was discussing archaeology, clock repairs and genealogy. He was a licensed air pilot, amateur radio enthusiast, an equestrian; and loved doing his own improvements on his home and landscaping on his grounds. His innovation and passion have left behind a loving legacy that will continue to enrich us as we continue on our respective journeys. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on April 8, at 11:00, at Our Lady of the Assumption Church, 75 Center Road (Route 114), Woodbridge, CT. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be sent to CT Hospice or the Lustgarten Foundation.

“ *Our sympathy for the loss of your loved one. Bob was a strong supporter of our efforts during our careers and an innovative thinker.
His contributions will be missed in this life. May his spirit continue to be innovative and resourceful!*
