The family wishes to express their gratitude to a fine man and close friend, Sam, Bob's faithful and devoted caregiver of the last five years. His compassion, dedication, and respect were gifts Bob and his family were fortunate to receive.

“ I used to spend a lot of time at the Marlowe’s house in my younger days. Uncle Bob loved to amuse us kids with his magic tricks. My favorite was when he would wondrously show us how he could separate his thumb into two. For many, many years, I thought he really could do it! He always had this big smile on his face as all the kids looked on as he performed the trick. Rest In Peace, Uncle Bob. You will be missed! Your niece, Cherie Weldon
