“ We never met Ronny, but heard only wonderful things about him. We were in awe of the closeness and love he shared so easily with his entire family.

At this incredibly difficult time, may the joy he brought to you during his life, sustain you now and forever more!

“ I worked with and shared a fasanation for hauntings with Ronnie so when he would go on his adventures he would always share the experience or videos with me. We had a great time talking about ghosts and hauntings, his eyes would light up and a huge smile as he would tell me the stories. A void will be left in everyone whos life he touched. Rest easy Ronnie in a place where your enormous spirit will be free forever..
