“ Rose was ahead of her time. As a child I remember her as a very strong and loving wife, mother and dear friend of our family. Rose was also a force of nature she created her life, was an equal partner with dear Dino and built quite a family and friends legacy. Rose had a strong faith, it guided her in difficult times and was an example to all who doubted God in our own lives. I will always remember this dear dear Lady. She was a loyal friend to my Mom and Dad and my entire family. She inspired people with her energy vitality and kindness. It will always be an honor and a privilege to say I knew Rose and Dino. They were children of the greatest generation and lived up to their parents legacy. My sincere condolences to a great and loving family - God bless Rose and Dino and keep them safe in his arms.
