“ Many years ago, Brendan and I visited your parents. Your mother was caring for your father. She was an angel. We were helping with some minor home repairs. Brendan and I were repairing some tiles in the bathtub. Rosemary came upstairs to check on us. She observed and then commented that she amazed how Brendan and I worked together with no tension. I loved Rosemary's common sense and positivity. She raised two children who exhibit those same qualities. We need more Rosemarys in this world.
