“ I was a trumpet player and Scott, along with my twin brother, was a trombone player through junior high and high school. We had a lot of laughs together, loved jazz and of course made a lot of great music together. We went our ways after high school and did not speak at all till about twelve years ago or so. Thankfully, he had not changed much, except now he had a son (Jordan) who he admired dearly. We talked on the phone occasionally, and still both loved jazz (Bill Watrous), we loved to get silly, and we both loved a little chaos once in a while. He and I last spoke over the phone only about 3-4 weeks ago, and I could still hear the smile upon his face as he spoke. He was a charming guy. My good friend Scott. I will miss him. My prayers are with the family. John Nichols

“ Scott was a wonderful, thoughtful person. We went to high school together. He sat behind me in homeroom and he was very entertaining. I remember those days very clearly like they were yesterday. Since graduation, we got together a few times, and he would call me to see how I was doing. He recently called to give his condolences following the untimely death of my son. At that time he shared that he was not well and hospitalized. My heart goes out to his family. I will always have a special place in my heart for Scott. He was a very positive, caring person who loved his son and proud of his accomplishment. I am So sorry. He will be missed. My condolences. Karen Swanson ❤️
