“ The death of a loved one is never easy to deal with. When we lose a someone we love knocks us off balance and we are left with many emotions including anger, pain and denial; and we know that our lives will never be the same. Slowly our lives adjust and we go on anyway without them Love never dies, we just learn to live without our loved ones. May you find comfort in God’s promise of an earthly paradise (Revelation 21:3-5) where even death will no longer exist.

Sincere condolences for your loss.

I will miss Sophie. We had wonderful conversations and laughed. She was a wonderful person and could never understand why she lived so long. She often spoke of her daughter and their visits together. Rest in peace dear Sophie. Sincere condolences to her daughter and her family!!!!!!
