“ Steven was my cousin and a very different kind of babysitter when my Mom, his aunt, stuck him with the job. He watched me....clean engine parts and work on other tasks he found to keep me busy. He was his own person and if you had a problem with him, it was your problem. He was the first one to treat me like a person, not just a kid. I miss you always Steven.

“ It saddens to me to learn about Steve's passing. I had just left a voicemail on the home phone to check on him Monday October 21, because it had been an unusually long time that he had not stopped by the American Legion Post 88. Steve was always helping someone in some way with transportation, or fixing something, even with a place to live. He would always say " my cats still love me" His heart was big and he offered it in a way that only Steve D'Agostino can. He always made sure the Legion had kindling for the fire, hand picked sticks from around his home. Steve missed his friend Don very much, I can hear them bickering now as they are reunited. Had I known of his passing and the services I would have been there. My blessings to the family. Lisa Infante

“ Our Love thoughts and prayers are being petitioned on behalf of the family. May God continue to bless the bonds of your family and comfort you at this time. Steve has always had a kind word and was there for you when you needed him.

He loved his family and his cats and took good care of them. Lay your burdens at his feet he is now safe in God's hands with no pain.
