

Steven Pasquale

December 12, 1958 - February 17, 2025

On February 17th, 2025, the universe, in its infinite wisdom and lack of consideration, decided that the Pasquale family had simply been too happy for too long. Perhaps it was the abundance of joy, perhaps it was the overwhelming good looks—whatever the reason, the universe decided to restore balance the only way it knew how: by taking the most essential piece of the Pasquale family, Steven Pasquale.

Steven Pasquale was more than a father and husband; he was the backbone of a family that now feels impossibly unsteady without him. He taught his three children the practical things—how to find a stud in the wall, check tire pressure, and read a tape measure—but more importantly, he gave them what actually mattered: the ability to never take themselves too seriously, an unshakable instinct to help others, and, perhaps his greatest gift, a sharp, unwavering, and inappropriate sense of humor.

To know Steven was to know a true friend. He was a master of all trades — there was nothing he couldn't fix. He was a man of his word and never let anyone down; just ask anyone at Parkview Service Station. He was a pillar in our community and his presence will be unmistakably missed.

He leaves behind his wife of 35 years, Nancy, his two daughters Caroline and Grace, and son, Steven. He is also survived by his parents, Elizabeth and Philip Pasquale, older brother Kevin Pasquale and youngest brother Philip Pasquale. Steven was also the brother of the late Jeffrey Pasquale.

A viewing for friends and family will be held this Saturday, February 22nd, at Sisk Brothers Funeral Home on 3105 Whitney Ave, Hamden from 1:00PM to 4:00PM. Please come join the family in celebrating the life of a man everyone loved and admired.
