“ I knew Sue over 50 years. She was a fighter, and a survivor. Golf was her passion in life, and what a fierce competitor she was. We've shared many memories together. We laughed and cried together, I was very well aware of her whole family-and the kind and thoughtfulness you always gave her, and that wasn't easy (ha ha). Know in your hearts that you did all that you could for her. Perhaps that is why she lived so long. My sincerest and deepest sympathies.
