“ As part of my extended family since childhood, Terry can be remembered as your crazy aunt with a sharp sense of humor and as brassy as the color of her hair. In my mind's eye, I can see her holding a cigarette in her fingers, arm locked on the other elbow, and carrying on a spirited conversation with neighbors (amazing what little insignificant things you remember as a child!). After watching over us as children, she had met my children when they were my age and fussed over them as well. Precious.

Growing up next door to Terry and her extended family was one of the best memories of my life. I really thought she would outlive me and was grateful to have known her as long as I have. God bless Terry and her family. Please accept my deepest condolences. We'll all miss her.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy on the passing of Terry Lucibelli to her loving family. Terry, was a very thoughtful and kind God Mother to me, she always remembered me over the many years. She was truly a one of kind personality. Terry would call me occasionally to tell me a joke which always made my day and of course always made me laugh out loud. Life will not be as funny without Terry. She will be missed today, tomorrow and forever. Love, Ray Altieri
