

Vincent J. Caruso

February 15, 1951 - June 7, 2023

Vincent Caruso, born February 15th, 1951, peacefully passed away on June 7th, 2023. He was surrounded by his loved ones, who will forever cherish the memories shared with him. Vincent leaves behind a legacy of love, dedication and family that will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew him. Born in New Haven, Vincent Caruso, the son of Frank and Virginia Caruso, embarked on a remarkable journey throughout his life. Family held the highest priority in his heart, and he was a dedicated and loving father, grandfather, son, brother, and uncle. His love for his family ran deep, and nothing brought him greater joy than nurturing his two sons, Vincent and Nicholas, who filled his life with immeasurable pride. Throughout his life, he generously shared numerous stories, wisdom, and laughter with his beloved family and friends. A passionate sports enthusiast, he found immense joy in coaching his sons and witnessing the flourishing athletic achievements of his granddaughters. Alongside his family, he held a profound love and affection for his sons' friends, who became an extension of his own circle. His presence lit up any room, and he had an uncanny ability to make everyone feel loved. His absence will be deeply felt by all who had the privilege of knowing him. He is survived by his children, Vincent Caruso Jr. and Nicholas Caruso, his daughter-in-law's Christina Caruso and Cori Campion. His grandchildren include Hayly, Ayva, Olivia, and Avery Caruso. Additionally, he is survived by his siblings Mary (Joseph) Velardi, Lucy Caruso, and Valentino (Linda) Caruso, as well as a host of other relatives and friends. Although he is no longer physically present, his spirit will forever live on in the cherished memories we hold dear.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be Celebrated Tuesday at 10 a.m. in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church. Friends are asked to go directly to church. Burial in Centerville Cemetery. Calling hours are Monday from 4 - 7 p.m. in Sisk Brothers Funeral Home 3105 Whitney Ave. Hamden. Memorial contributions may be made to Development Office, CT. Hospice 100 Double Beach Rd. Branford, CT. 06405. To leave an online condolence please visit www.siskbrothers.com

We bid farewell to Vincent Caruso with heavy hearts, knowing that he has found eternal peace. May he find eternal rest, forever remembered as a beacon of love and inspiration. Though his presence may be missed, his legacy will continue to guide and inspire us all.
