“ We are so saddened to hear of the loss of our dear friend and colleague. Vin was unimitable in his unwavering presence as a professional and true friend. My colleagues and I shared many social and work events and time together and he was the consummate friend and service provider. He made all CPA's proud to assoicate with him. We will miss him. To his Dad and family, we hope your knowledge of our grief on your loss somehow helps you find strength and compassion in God's mercy as Vin has now become an angel. May he rest in peace.
