

Virginia R. Angus

May 17, 1927 - October 30, 2015

The last of the Regan clan, Virginia Lois Regan Angus, born to Edward and Mary Jane Mills Regan, passed away peacefully at Elim Park in Cheshire on October 30, 2015. In her early years "Ginny" worked for the New Haven Railroad. In later years managed the concession stand at the Shubert Theatre in New Haven and worked at St Raphael's Hospital in dietary. After retiring from Universal Distributors she volunteered as a "Foster Grandmother" in New Haven schools and community agencies for many years.

Ginny loved to dance and loved the theater, but most of all she was proud of anything that involved her grandchildren. She never missed a game, a dance recital, concert or show.

The family wishes to thank the wonderful nursing staff at Elim Park who loved Ginny as much as we did. Keisha, Shirley, Rose, Paige, Kim, Millie, Gisela, Yajira, Tammy, Luba, Christine and Kristi are just a few who touched Ginny's life in her final years.

A special thanks to her nephew and godson, Mark Peel whose caring and support was never ending.

Ginny was predeceased by her brothers, William, Edward, Thomas and Raymond Regan and her sisters Jane Cusack Manning and Florence Peel. She is survived by her daughter Susan (Donald) Pierson of Wallingford and sons Kenneth and Gregory (Nancy) of Seattle, WA, grandchildren Jessica and Ryan Pierson, Michael, Gabrielle, Aaron and Parvaneh Angus, one great grandchild and many nieces and nephews.
