“ To Bill's Family, Carol and Wilbert Bill will be sadly missed by all. He was wonderful man. Bill was the kind of man that gave to everyone and when you wanted to give back he had a hard time to except anything in return. He will always have a special place in my heart. A few of his friends that knew him threw Carol always teased him by calling him Father Bill, we said he had the look of an Irish priest. Bill we love you and are going to miss you. Pat Champagne

“ TO all the Carneys and friends, Although I never spent a great deal of time with Bill, what I remember most is his kind spirit and warm welcoming smile. I do know he was a dedicated son, uncle, and brother. Bill's intellect was obvious as was both his brothers. My heartfelt feelings go out to all of you. The suffering is over, God bless all. Rich

“ Dear family and friends, Bill was one of the first people I met when I came to work at Yale (23 yrs ago). Through the years he was our quick source for HR and Benefits History, always willing to go the extra step to help in whatever way he was able. He seemed to know everyone, and "Mr. New Haven" not only knew his way around the Yale Campus but also his beloved city of New Haven. Yale was fortunate to have had him as a dedicated employee, and all that knew him were just as fortunate to have been befriended by him. Bill's generous spirit, impish smile, and the twinkle in his Irish eyes will be dearly missed. My sincere condolences, Karen D.

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the Carney family and everyone that knew Bill because if you knew Bill, you were his friend, and lost someone special. I have known Bill my entire life and considered him a close friend, mentor, confidant, father figure and one of the best people I have ever met. I grew up two houses away from the Carney’s at 90 Pearl St. and remember how he cared for his father and then his mother who we simply called “Grandma Carney.” Bill has been there for me (like he has for many others) through all the ups and downs of my life and he always had a kind word, positive advice or a funny story to make me feel better. Bill never cared about himself and was always concerned about everyone around him. Whenever I went to visit him or stop by his office, just to say hello, he would say to me “hey good buddy, is there anything I can do for you?” Bill just did for others and never wanted anything in return. He was truly a special person that significantly impacted the lives of everyone that knew him. I will never be able to thank him enough or repay him for all that he has done for me and my family over the years. Bill, take care good buddy, you will be truly missed!

“ Carney Family, please accept our sympathy for your great loss. Uncle Bill, as our twins, Hannah and Jacob, called him was an amazing human being. He was kind, thoughtful and caring and we will miss him terribly. Bill was a friend to all and respected by all his colleagues at Yale University. It has been an honor knowing him. God bless. “ Bill will be remembered by me as someone who is truly knowledgeable, kind and helpful to anyone. If he had the information he would give it, and if he didn't, he would point you in the right direction. Any request you had asked of him, he would jokingly say: "That'll be $49.95." He will be missed.

“ I would like to extend my sympathy to Bill's family and friends. Bill and I go back a long way. We were at Yale forty years ago during the riots, strikes, going co-ed. We were part of a team called the young turks and even did fire duty patrolling the roofs together. Over the years he was very helpful to me and we kept in touch, in fact, the last time we talked, he was old optimistic self and was looking forward to going home soon. Bill, I will miss you. You deserve a good rest, especially in light of the hectic schedule you always kept. God bless.

“ I worked with Bill in HR back in the '80's. He was a truly decent man. I can't count the numbers of retirees and employees he personally assisted whenever he could regardless of the time of day. He was dignified, fun to work with and genuinely cared about people. I offer my condolences to the members of the Carney family. This is a great loss.
