

Zachary Bzdyra

July 12, 1988 - July 3, 2010

Zachary Andrew Bzdyra .21 of Hamden suddenly on July 3, 2010 Son of Suzann Kober of Hamden and Frank Bzdyra of Bridgeport. Zachary is survived by his brothers Cazimir and Samuel Bzdyra. Zachary graduated in 2006 from Hamden High,attended Anna Maria College in Paxton, MA. And graduated in May 2010 from University of Connecticut with a BS in English and Had been awarded 2 Honor Societies. Zach excelled in his studies and worked late into the night to finish that paper that was due tomorrow. A sports enthusiast. he could he seen riding his bike on the Canal or the streets of Hamden,, kicking a soccer ball or throwing a Frisbee at Legion. He was currently training for the Warrior Dash in September. Zach was an extreme player, going full tilt at everything he did. Soccer was his life, playing at Anna Maria and being awarded All Conference Achievement. He was glued to the TV set during the recent World Cup,England and of course the USA being the teams of Choice., Ultimate Frisbee was his game at UCONN. A friend posted on FB. "you were insane and gave everything, putting your body on the line for the team, you left it all there. Then off the field you were cool,. quiet and reasonable. Something we could learn a lot from." He looked forward to someday starting his own microwbrewery and was applying to a number of breweries on both coasts in hopes of getting his "foot in the door". Zach's interest in beer making and his connoisseur appetite of beers was sparked by working at Amity Wines & Liquors in Hamden for the past 4years.. Zach was an avid writer with an internship at the New Haven Register and articles for college publications along with screenplays, poems and ideas for a book he hoped to someday publish. He loved fire and fireworks and used to make his own. This was his time of year. He made your day with a smile or a hug and was always there for his friends. Along with his parents and brothers, Zachary is survived by maternal grandparents. Marge and Al Lemanski of Shelton, Fr. Stephen Bzdyra, Aleksandta and Barbara Bzdyra, Terese and Don Lako and many first and second cousins. Also survived by his step-mother Donna Bzdyra a step-sister Brynne and step-brother Bret. Zachary will be sadly missed by his friends many of whom he had known since early childhood. He lived life to the fullest in his short time here on the planet. "What time is it? GAME TIME " Friends are invited to attend a celebration of Zach's life at Sisk Brothers Funeral Home 3105 Whitney Ave. Hamden between 12- 4- pm. on Saturday July 17th preceded by a prayer service at 11a.m.. A funeral mass will be celebrated at 7pm at Church of the Ascensions, Dunbar Hill Rd. Hamden. Wes .Ju1v 21. Burial at the discretion of the family

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions to UCONN Ultimate Frisbee Team

“ Dear Frank, We are so sorry to hear of the passing of you son Zachary. Though we did not know him, we know you, and are well aware of the love and devotion you have had for your sons. We have not seen you in many years since our days in PT but our hearts and prayers are with you and your family. We pray you feel the comfort of the Father as you walk through these most difficult hours, weeks, months and years.

With deepest sympathy,

Ginny and Chris Brestelli Westbrook, Ct.

“ Frank, to you and your brother, Fr. Steve, Barbara and Aleksandra, I am so truly sorry to hear about the passing of Zachary. We have not seen each other in many a years, far removed from the Bishop St. days, but I remember spending many good times with your family. May you find comfort, and you will be in my prayers.
